DEATH.

At Amoy, suddenly, at noon on 14th November, Mr. FRANK CASE, of Amoy and Furness. (By telegram.)

The publication of this issue commenced at 5.40 p.m.

The China Mail.

HONGKONG, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1900.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

We are informed by Messrs. John D.

Humphreys & Son, General Managers of Oliver's Freehold Mines Limited, that they have received a telegram from the Mines, giving the result of last clean up as follows:—625 tons of quartz crushed for a yield of 315 ounces of retorted gold; mill ran 5 weeks.

Arrest of a Russian Officer.

On October 31, a Russian officer, in uniform, armed with a camera, was found loitering about the fairs at Colombo. He was arrested and sent under an escort to the Military Headquarters. No plates containing imprints of the batteries were found in the camera, and the officer went away whistling. The officer was a passenger by the Russian steamer Savitsky, homeward-bound from Vladivostok.

Taylor-Carrington Company.

A large theatrical company, headed by the well-known English actress, Miss Ella Carrington, and Mr. Charlie Taylor, an Australian actor of high repute, has arrived from India en route to Australia, and will play a short season in Hongkong, commencing next Saturday night, Nov. 17. The Company's repertoire is a very extensive one and the three pieces selected for presentation here—'Home Rule,' a popular drama of the Shanghai type of piece, 'Charley's Aunt'—up-to-date, the latest version of the best of all farcical comedies, and 'Tribby,' the emotional play which some two years ago achieved such remarkable success in London when played by Mr.

Trotter. It will be noted that each piece is different in style from the others, consequently all sorts of amusement seekers are entertained. Our Bombay and Calcutta exchanges praise the Taylor-Carrington performance most warmly, and as it is such a long time since we have had a really good company in Hongkong the season should be a very pronounced success. The rates of admission are fixed at $3, $2 and $1, and the usual concession is made to both Military and Naval patrons. The reserve planet is now open at the Robinson Piano Company, where seats may be reserved for any night during the season.

Admission of Solicitors.

Yesterday, at the Supreme Court, Mr.

John Scott Harrison and Mr. Francis Collins

Barlow were approved, admitted and enrolled as Attorneys and Proctors of the Court. Mr. Harrison, who is a brother of Dr. Harrison, filed an affidavit which stated that he was formerly of Leeds. He was admitted to be a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England on the 19th of February, 1900. He arrived in this Colony on the 7th day of November. There was an affidavit by Dr. Harrison, who said that he was a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Judicature of England, and was a fit and proper person to be admitted as an Attorney and Proctor of the Court. There was also a letter from a partner in the firm of Messrs. Ford and Warren, of Leeds, Solicitors, who said that Mr. Harrison had been for the past five years, and was at that time (September, 1900) managing clerk in their firm. From his personal experience and knowledge of him during that period he unhesitatingly said that he was in every respect a fit and proper person to be admitted to practice as a Solicitor in Hongkong or elsewhere.

In an affidavit filed by him Mr. Barlow said he was attested on the 26th day of July 1894, with James Chalmers Pimentel, a member of the firm of Pimentel and Co., of Birmingham, and remained with that firm until the year 1898, when he went to Messrs.

Field, Roscoe, & Co. of London, agents for the firm of Pimentel and Co., and remained with them till the end of the year 1899. He passed the final examination at the office of the Incorporated Law Society, in Chancery Lane, London, in January 1900, and was admitted a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England.

In the month of October, 1900, in July, 1900 he interviewed Walter Carey, of the firm of Villiers, Curry, and Gemmings, of No. 3, Gray's Inn Place, London, with a view to obtaining an appointment as assistant Solicitor to Messrs. Deane and Hastings, of Hongkong, which he understood to be open, and he was subsequently appointed. On the 5th October he sailed from London for Hongkong, and arrived here on the 10th November. An affidavit by Mr. Deane was also submitted. Chief Justice Sir John Charrington, after admitting both gentlemen as Solicitors of the Court, expressed a wish that they would have honourable and successful careers.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Notes by the Way.

A London telegram states that the Germans have established wireless telegraphy between Peking and Tientsin.

The Military Governor of the Philippines has issued an order that all Filipinos employed in the Customs House Departments shall take the oath of allegiance.

The chair coolies of the Colony have not yet got rid of the bad practice of rushing for fares. This morning the coolies of five chairs were fined $4 per chair for presing round and jostling passengers near the German Club, in Wyndham Street, yesterday.

Gamblers.

At the Magistracy to-day, seventeen coolies, who were caught gambling at West Point, were fined $3 each. They were playing a sort of poker with European cards and, when the Police appeared, they put out the lights and attempted to escape.

Practice Dance.

The first practice dance for the St.

Andrew's Ball was held last night at the City Hall. There was a large attendance of ladies and gentlemen. The programme consisted of Caledonian, Eightome, Reel and Strathspey Reel, and as an extra, the inevitable waltz. Music was supplied by Piper Sinclair and the band of the Royal Welch Fusiliers.

The Typhoon—Collecting the Dead.

Yesterday three more bodies were washed ashore at West Point, making nine altogether from this district. Two launches were busy in the harbour yesterday collecting bodies. The bodies were placed on bamboo rafts and taken ashore, afterwards being conveyed in the Sanitary Board dead boxes to the Mortuary. During the past few days the Mortuary has presented a horrible spectacle.

Football.

The games played on Saturday, October 13, in the English Association Football League competition (First Division) saw some very interesting finishes and a few surprises. 'Bristol' won from 'Bristol' home a week earlier by Bolton Wanderers.

It was expected that Aston Villa would make amends for their shortcomings at home by sweeping Nottingham, but this they could not accomplish, and instead had to put up with another reverse by two goals to one. Nottingham deserved their success. This is the third defeat of the champions since the season opened, two of which have been sustained at Birmingham. Last year, West Bromwich Albion were the only team which overcame the Villa at home, while the preceding season they did not lose a single game at Birmingham. Nottingham's highly creditable performance causes the championship table to have quite a new appearance, Aston Villa dropping down to fifth place, and being passed over by Liverpool, Newcastle United, Bury, and Nottingham Forest. The three leading clubs did excellently again in their games to date, Liverpool (2-1) and Newcastle (2-1), playing close games with the much-improved

Bolton Wanderers and the unlucky Derby County respectively; while Nottingham crushed local West Bromwich Albion

(5-1). Everton, in a hard game with Manchester City, were just beaten (1-0); and Sunderland were deprived of their unbeaten record by a defeat (2-0) at Sheffield from the
